Appeal over wanted men

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THESE are the faces of twelve men who are wanted in connection with a variety of serious offences and have failed to appear at court after being granted bail.

Bedfordshire Police have now issued these pictures in the hope that people may have seen the wanted men or may have information about their whereabouts.

Those pictured above are wanted in connection with a range of crimes including burglary, theft, fraud and possession of drugs. They were all last seen in either Luton or Dunstable.

Among those wanted are Mateusz Augustyn, 20, who has been charged with assault and was last seen in Luton, Michael Berry, 20, who has been charged with burglary and breach of bail, and was last seen in Dunstable, and Modestas Bulvis, 28, who has been charged with burglary and was last seen in Luton.

Police also want to trace Robert Dmochowski, 30, who has been charged with burglary and theft, Alan Henley, who is wanted in connection with assault and criminal damage and Basit Khan, 49, who is charged with being in possession of cocaine. All of these men were last seen in Luton.

Some warrants have been outstanding for a long period of time.

In particular the police are keen to find Gary Presneill, 46, who is wanted in connection with charges including possession of drugs. His warrant was issued in May 2002. He was last seen in Dunstable.

More recently, warrants have been issued for John McDonagh, 24, who is wanted in connection with theft and fraud, Olumide Olaniyi, 21, who has been charged with possession of drugs with intent to supply and possession of an offensive weapon and Andre Richaz, 40, who is wanted in connection with handling stolen goods.

All three of these men were last seen in Luton.

Finally, police wish to speak to Constantin Sperache, 32, who is wanted in connection with a burglary, and Mark William Rowe, 41, who has been charged with a sexual offence and assault.

This warrant was the most recently issued, having been issued in February of this year at Luton Magistrates' Court.

Anyone with information about any of these men has been advised that they should call the police on the 24 hour non-emergency number 101, instead of trying to approach them.

Alternatively, you can contact the Wanted on Warrant team direct by email at mostwanted@bedfordshire.police.pnn.uk and leave non-urgent information for them.

You can also contact independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

You do not have to give your name and no-one will know you called, but you could still receive a Crimestoppers cash reward.

Burglars raid five homes in two-hour crime spree

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NUMBER of homes were broken into in a two-hour burgling spree.

The five houses in the Luton and Dunstable area were targeted by a gang of burglars on Thursday, April 4, between 8 and 10pm.

The properties, which lie between Junction 11 of the M1 and Tring Road (B489), were broken into by the group, who were driving a dark grey or silver estate vehicle is believed to be either an Audi or BMW – possibly with tinted windows.

The first burglary was reported at 8.14pm from a property in Elden Road, Luton.

Three men, one armed with an iron bar, forced open the front door and entered the property but did not take anything.

At 8.27pm, officers were called to Allenby Avenue, Dunstable.

It was reported that two men, claiming to be police officers, had tried to force their way into the home of an elderly victim before fleeing in a vehicle.

Just two minutes later, at 8.29pm, a call was received from another elderly victim in Jeans Way, Dunstable, after three men armed with a pick axe handle and a baseball bat, forced their way into his home.

After threatening the victim, the men left the property with a handbag which contained keys, a purse and bank cards.

The next burglary was reported at 9.04pm after three men were seen leaving an address in Bullpond Lane, Dunstable. The trio had entered the property through a back door, and took a handbag and jewellery box which were found nearby.

A fifth burglary was reported at 10pm from a property in Tring Road, Dunstable. The owner had returned home to find a window smashed and a number of items of jewellery had been taken.

Detectives from the South Burglary Squad are keen to hear from anyone who was in the areas mentioned on Thursday night who saw anything suspicious.

If you have information relating to this incident, contact the South Burglary Squad, in confidence, on the non-emergency number 101, text information to 07786 200011, or email southburglarysquad@bedfordshire.pnn.police.uk.

Alternatively contact independent charity Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111, or online at crimestoppers-uk.org.

Rugby stars help brothers train for charity run

TWO brothers from Dunstable, entered the world of top rugby when the Saracens team helped them train for an upcoming charity run.

Solomon Strathers, aged six, who is a patient at Great Ormond Street Hospital (GOSH), and Jakob, nine, took part in a number of energetic sessions, ahead of the Royal Bank of Canada Race for the Kids 5k family fun run, which will take place on Sunday, June 9 in London.

Money raised from the event will help fund the essential redevelopment of the children's hospital and enable a parent or carer to stay comfortably by their child's bedside.

The cause is especially important to the family, as Solomon has been treated at GOSH since he underwent open heart surgery aged just five.

Saracens' club captain Steve Borthwick said: "We really enjoyed meeting the patients and their families today; the fact that they will be taking part in this year's race is really inspiring to us."

"The money raised will mean the hospital can continue its work and treat more children."

Family left in cold after heating is switched off

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MOTHER and her two young children have been left without hot water and heating for eight days, after their housing association property flooded.

Andrenette Legister, who lives in a house owned by Catalyst Housing in Paisley Close, Luton, has been struggling to keep her family warm, after the association's sub-contractor, Robert Heath Heating, turned the gas off but failed to tell her when repair works would be carried out.

Miss Legister, who lives in the property with her daughters Amanie, five, and Rochelle, three, first encountered problems on Tuesday, March 26.

After noticing water dripping in her first floor bathroom cupboard she contacted the association but claims she was told the situation wasn't serious enough for anyone to come out.

The next day Miss Legister awoke to find her home had flooded, with water pouring into her living room.

A worker from Catalyst Housing Group visited the property on Thursday, March 28, and told her that a number of repairs needed to be completed.

However, he couldn't tell her when the work would be carried out due to the Easter Bank Holiday weekend, but said that he needed to turn off her heating and hot water in the meantime.

The family were then left to survive freezing temperatures for eight days, until the problems were scheduled to be rectified on Friday.

She said: "It just isn't good enough to be left in a situation like this for so long. "We have been left for eight days with no hot water or heating, and no communication when anything would be fixed. "It has been so cold and I've just been doing my best to keep my children warm."

"I wasn't offered any temporary heaters until Wednesday."

"It has been a nightmare and no-one else should have to go through this."

A spokesman for Catalyst Housing said: "Robert Heath Heating works for Catalyst Housing to provide gas heating and hot water to the properties.

"We apologise on their behalf for the inconvenience caused to Miss Legister and her family. We will be working with Robert Heath to ensure that this does not happen again."

"Catalyst has spoken to Miss Legister and has provided suitable temporary heating for her home. Once the drying process is complete we will assess the damage and carry out any cleaning and maintenance necessary."

Man fly-tips his way to a £717 bill

LUTON council has issued a warning against fly-tipping following the prosecution of a man who illegally dumped waste.

Thomas McDonagh, 26, of Exton Avenue, Luton, was hit with a fine and costs of £717 for dumping rubbish in Pondwicks Road in Luton last August. He had pleaded guilty to the offence.

He appeared at Luton Magistrates Court on March 20, following arrest and an overnight stay in custody because he failed to attend an earlier court hearing.

Magistrates sentenced McDonagh to a £190 fine, £20 surcharge and £507 costs.

Jennifer Wyatt, the council's environmental enforcement manager, said:

"Dumping rubbish illegally is anti-social and unacceptable in today's society."

"The council works hard to keep the streets of Luton clean and respectable."

"But we shouldn't need to be spending taxpayer's money on clearing up fly-tipped waste, particularly when Luton has an excellent household waste collection service, household waste recycling centres for household waste and neighbourhood recycling centres nearby."

In February this year a motorist was fined £435 for dropping a cigarette from her window.

A council officer had seen her discard the butt whilst driving in Brantwood Road.

Family 'shocked' at death of pensioner

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE tragic death of pensioner Rod Samuels in Leagrave Park has left both the family and community in 'shock'.

Mr Samuels died after being crushed by a tree whilst gathering firewood on Wednesday afternoon in the park.

An inquest into his death was opened and adjourned on Friday.

On Friday afternoon Mr Samuel's family issued a statement about his passing.

It said: "The family are deeply shocked and saddened by this tragic accident. Rod was a wonderful husband, loving father and doting grandfather.

"He was a very popular figure who always had a tale to tell and will be sorely missed by friends and family.

"We would like to take this opportunity to clarify that he was collecting fallen wood when the accident occurred and not cutting down trees, as has been reported by some media agencies.

"We would also like to thank the emergency services for their efforts and their kindness and our family and friends for their tremendous support. Rod's passing will leave a huge gap in all our lives. May he rest in peace."

On Thursday, a neighbour of Mr Samuels, Marie Clare, from

TRAGEDY: Mr Samuels was crushed by this tree while collecting firewood

Bagwicks Close, Luton, said his tragic passing had stunned the neighbourhood as he was 'a very nice man' who 'was always gardening'.

Mrs Clare, who is retired, said she had waved at him on the morning of the tragedy as he headed towards the park.

She said: "He was a very nice man and he was always gardening.

"I saw him in the morning at about 11.30am and I just waved at him as he was going to get some firewood.

"In the evening I was watching the news and I had heard that a man had died in the area but I thought it was someone else."

Mrs Clare, who has lived in Marsh Farm for 19 years, said she had a good relationship with the family as there was a strong community feel in the area.

She continued: "Last year he helped me out by cutting down a tree in my garden. I can't believe he's gone, we are all in shock around here.

"He spoke to everyone and was very, very friendly. Around here we look out for each other and it's a very close community."

Care concern being addressed

THE head of a disabled charity says residents have come forward to his organisation with concerns about care changes.

Mick Dillon, chief executive of The Disability Resource Centre, in Dunstable, said he was working with Luton council to try and ensure disabled people would continue to receive care from their preferred providers.

Seven home care providers have been recently appointed by the authority as part of a new contract, with other agencies unsuccessful or not tabling a bid.

Mr Dillon said: "Over the last two weeks we have been approached by around 25 local disabled people who are greatly concerned about the forthcoming changes to the council's approved care agency list.

"In many of these cases, individuals have received personal care in their own homes for many years, often with the same agency carer and this may end over the coming month.

"We are actively working with the council to ensure that in as many cases as possible, those who wish to, are able to remain with their preferred local care provider, to maximise their independence, choice and control".

Review after police fall victim to ‘prank’

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FULL review of security at Dunstable Police Station has been launched after a drunk broke into the building.

Bedfordshire Police has confirmed that a 36-year-old man, who was ‘intoxicated’ at the time, entered the premises on West Street, pictured, on Saturday, March 30 at 6am.

The intruder was on the property for approximately 40 minutes, during which time he managed to gain access to the car park area, enquiry office and property store.

He then notified the police of his presence, and was arrested just ten minutes later.

Despite the length of time that the man was inside the building, police have assured the public that he did not access computer systems, or any information of a confidential nature.

A spokesman for Bedfordshire Police said: “While this appears to be a drunken prank a full review of station security is now underway.”

A man has since been charged with criminal damage, and is due to appear at Luton Magistrates’ Court on Wednesday, April 17 at 10am.

School development plans given go-ahead

PROPOSALS to redevelop Cardinal Newman Catholic School in Luton have been given the green light.

The scheme costing £1.3million will transform the existing layout, creating a personalised learning and dining area which will form several modern teaching and social spaces.

Additional classrooms will also be incorporated into the design with a single-storey new build extension creating four classrooms, as well as the refurbishment of the existing dining room, which will create replacement teaching areas and group rooms.

The scheme was designed by the Diocesan Architects, GSS Architecture, who are national specialists in the education sector. Work begins in July.

Worker struck off for improper relationship

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SOCIAL worker has been struck off for failing to maintain professional boundaries while working at Luton Borough Council as a Youth Justice Worker.

A panel of the Health and Care Professions Council Conduct and Competence Committee heard that Joanne McGovern had an inappropriate relationship with a 17-year-old male, called Service User A.

She allowed the teen to visit her at her home address and visited him two to four times each week, when once a month would have been appropriate.

The panel further heard Mrs McGovern allowed the 17-year-old to drive her car. She also rented a car for his use although she knew he did not hold a full driving licence or insurance.

On one occasion he was arrested in the hire car and on another he was involved in an accident.

She was later visited by Bedfordshire police who told her she was being reported for aiding and abetting the offences.

Panel chairman Alexander Yule said: "The panel is satisfied that Mrs McGovern's actions did cause harm to Service User A's family, to the reputation of the Luton Borough Council Youth Offending Service and to the profession."

"The panel decided the most appropriate action was to strike Joanne McGovern from the Register with an interim suspension order in place to cover the appeal period." Joanne McGovern was not present or represented at the hearing.

Derelict hotel could be replaced by six flats

A PLANNING application has been submitted for a block of flats at the site of a hotel which has been derelict for the past 14 years.

Luton-based JT Consultancy Ltd has drawn up plans to build six flats to replace the empty Grange Guest House hotel on the Great Northern Road, Dunstable Town.

Council's planning committee is due to make a decision on whether or not to approve the application on Tuesday. If councillors approve the plans it will see three one-bedroom and three two-bedroom flats constructed.

The application is being handled by RDT Design, a Hertfordshire-based architectural and engineering practice.

It is understood that residents in the area are in favour of the proposed development as it would reduce the fire risk to other properties.

Bus cuts could mean the end for Newman

SIR - In response to the letter published by Ron Turvey relating to faith schools.

I am always one to respect others opinions and the freedom of speech, however, on this occasion I felt compelled to clarify the actual facts.

Cardinal Newman, like all faith schools, is Voluntary Aided, which means they actually receive 10 per cent lower funding for their buildings from the Local Authority than other LA run schools.

The 10 per cent is made up through donations from the parents, the church community and the diocese.

If the free funding for transport is removed, for many parents, the choice of a Faith School will no longer be a financially viable option, pushing many more children towards attending their local community secondary school.

This will then force children who live nearer Cardinal Newman to be allocated a space -

CAMPAIGN: A committee are fighting plans to cut the bus services for faith schools in Luton although they have no desire to attend a faith school.

The continued faith denomination of Cardinal Newman will then potentially be called into question.

The worst case scenario would be the school no longer remains a faith school and the control passes to the Local Authority.

The cost of funding for the free buses for children who live 3+ miles away from the school - which is below 50 per cent of pupils - is considerably lower than the Local Authority would need to fund if the school no longer remained voluntary aided.

The only advantage the pupils of Cardinal Newman school benefit from is to receive their education within a Catholic ethos environment.

If Mr Turvey sees that as an unfair advantage then he would, on that point alone, be right.

However, I think you will find the financial savings of cutting the school transport would be far less than the 10 per cent contribution the LA could find themselves making up if it loses its Catholic status. Mrs N O'Donnell, Hart Hill Drive, Luton

More will be affected

SIR - Mr Turvey, I suggest you clarify all the facts before writing such an ignorant letter towards the Catholic community.

The removal of funding for the school transport does not just affect pupils from Cardinal Newman, but also children under five with a disability, over 16s that get a subsidised saver card, and pupils attending Special Education Needs (SEN) schooling.

The council claims they will save £1m by cutting the transport, yet I question this amount as free funding will still continue for pupils who receive free school meals, or with an SEN statement (and rightly so)

The only difference will be there won't be a free school bus to school, it will be a free taxi - so the actual cost per child of funding would rise significantly!

The parents of pupils at Cardinal Newman school appear to be the only ones who truly have a handle on the facts and are rightly challenging the council to keep the free school transport for all - not just the pupils at Cardinal Newman.

Well done to the Cardinal Newman Preserve our School Transport Committee - you have the support of many Luton residents.
D Watters,
Luton

High Town needs help

SIR - I have felt compelled to write a letter concerning High Town and the problems it faces with drug related crime.

When we have an area in society where negative forces seem to have the upper hand, it is very easy to scapegoat and not deal with the real causes as to why prostitution is flourishing.

It will do High Town no good at all dealing with the symptoms of drug related crime, or becoming divisive as a community and blaming the two elected councillors Andrew Malcolm and Roxanne Whittaker of in action, when they have become very active indeed.

I believe them to be genuine with a social conscience.

Their work is to be applauded and I have no time for failed leadership whatsoever, but this is not such a case.

The time of the residents in High Town would be much better spent in pulling together and doing away with divisive petitions and taking a more positive role in helping the police to find out who these heroin and crack cocaine dealers are.

Channel your anger and talk openly about these people are.

Be frank, be brave and rid these parasites from our oldest and I hope most durable part of town that Luton has to offer.

Yvette Dunne,
High Town, Luton

Debt is due to Labour

SIR - Gavin Shuker complains about the level of debt still being financed by the coalition government. "This Tory-led government will borrow more in five years than the last Labour government borrowed in 13." This should not surprise him. The last Labour government should have not have needed to borrow at all.

In 1997 Labour inherited from the Conservative government a budget that was actually in balance and promised to follow Conservative spending plans for the first three years of the government. Yet from 2001, whilst Ed Balls was economic adviser to Gordon Brown, they went on a massive spending spree financed by borrowing.

The coalition has had to deal with this debt left by the last government, acknowledged by Liam Byrne in his note to his successor, "Dear Chief Secretary, I'm afraid there is no money left".

Labour had pulled the country into deep debt, usually only seen following the financing of world wars. The last Labour government was generous towards Luton.

Sadly it was on the strength of borrowed money which now has to be repaid. This is one reason why Luton is in particular difficulty with libraries closing and transport arrangements being cancelled. But the Labour controlled Luton Borough Council still behaves as the Labour government did, borrowing to spend.

The Conservative led coalition has shown great courage in its spending decisions designed to reduce the levels of debt and to reform welfare so that those in most need receive a share in the resources available.

The key thing is to ensure Labour are not returned to power in 2015 to wreak further destruction on our country.

Mrs M R Simons,
Fairford Avenue, Luton

Job market is tough

SIR - It all depends, Steve Lowe, on who you are when looking at immigration, but if you can answer correctly this simple question, then you will see the problem (Immigrants are a gain, not a drain, LoS, 31/3/13)

The question is, "If there is a glut of tomatoes, will the price of tomatoes go up, or will it go down?" Big hint, the price of tomatoes will go down.

Labour is just another factor of production, if there is lots of labour about, then the price of labour is low, and so lots of immigrants means that workers' wages will be low.

Airport drop fee rises

On Tuesday, Luton airport doubled the fee to drop off and pick up passengers from the Priority car park.

It had previously cost £1 for ten minutes in the zone, but drivers will now have to pay £2 for fifteen minutes.

We asked whether they price rise was fair, or whether it would put travellers off using the facility.

@ABYSSBIKER2: Not surprised, they even charge you a quid for plastic zip lock bag for cosmetics. I avoid Luton airport & drive when poss.

@midlandcottages: That is disgusting charging £2 to drop off and pick up. Is the airport running out of cash?

@christofflennon2: Not sticking up for the charges, but I doubt a £1 increase will put people needing to use the airport from using it. Still cheaper than a taxi (taxi drivers pass on the surcharge to passengers anyway!)

@goitsagch2: It's crazy. I don't know any other airport which charges people to drop off. Even Heathrow is free.

@masekw2: What is the alternative? First Capital Connect and pray? Train fare would cost more. Walking from the main road?

@johnsonbrian5402: What a rip off

@SlugBeans2: This is really disappointing to read! #greedy

@Vauxpensioner: Don't use the drop off point just pull into the side quickly jump out with your cases, it's not rocket science @boobiesweets: It is a bit silly. But if any one had sense they would get the shuttle-bus from Parkway for £1.50.

WE all love to hate 'ealth' n safety but perhaps it is not those who make the rules that are to blame.

A task force set up to weed out poor use of health and safety laws has found it is us, or at least some of us, who use it to ban what we don't want or can't be bothered with.

So bar staff said they were banned from serving pints in traditional handled beer mugs, toothpicks were banned from restaurant tables, or burgers other than well done, as part of health and safety when really it was just for their own convenience.

A school banned shredded paper in a lucky dip stall and a six-year-old was told she couldn't have a bubble machine at her birthday party.

People are hiding behind the law, to suit themselves, or because they are jobsworths.

At least this is what the panel, run by the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), tell us.

And I am sure they are right, or at least partly right.

But there is an element of PR in this, as the HSE has come up with some pretty daft decisions of its own.

It was them that told the Fire Brigade it could not use its ladders to take down Christmas bunting in Ampthill, as it breached health and safety laws. Other stories we have run

'Ealth' n safety bosses are just misunderstood include the following. Flat owners were told to remove their doormats by their housing association for health and safety reasons.

Tenants were told to remove Christmas lights from the front of their flats and one couple told they could not have door numbers screwed to their doors.

New lavatories had to be built because market traders were not allowed to cross the road for a pee.

A school banned children from playing conkers unless they wore goggles.

And a Victorian ice-house in Bedford could not be opened to the public as there was no hand-rail by the side of the shallow steps.

Ironically English Heritage did not want the handrail as it would spoil the Victorian appearance of the site. So while the HSE is no doubt keen to distance itself from the wilder shores of 'ealth' n safety, it has form.

If it has repented, then fine but if just saying 'not me Gov', then I must point to the several smoking guns.

A NEW university report has highlighted seven social classes in our society.

No longer are we a three class society. They run from 'elite' at the top, through 'established middle class', 'technical middle class', 'new affluent workers', 'traditional working class', 'emergent service workers and 'precarious' at the bottom.

It isn't just based on affluence and background but also culture and friends.

The Manchester University study - for the BBC - asks us if we want to take the test to see where we sit in the new British class system so I happily oblige.

I answer the questions honestly but come out as 'elite', which is at the top as the wealthiest and most privileged group of the seven classes.

Either the test is not very accurate or this country is in a lot bigger mess than I thought, if I am anywhere near the top of the social pile.

To quote Groucho Marx, I would not want to belong to a club that would let me in as a member.

New services for stroke survivors

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO new services have been created to help aid those who have been the victim of a stroke in Bedfordshire.

Launched by the Stroke Association charity, a prevention service will provide advice and support to people who have had a stroke and are at high risk of having another.

In addition, a new communication support service has been founded. This will enable speech and language therapists to give support to people whose ability to communicate has been affected by a stroke.

Alex Stewart, regional head of operations at the Stroke Association, said: "The best way to prevent a stroke is by identifying, managing and controlling known risk factors.

"We hope our new stroke prevention service will significantly reduce the risk of stroke in the local community, while our new communication support service will ensure stroke survivors receive the long term help they need to rebuild their life."

Stroke survivors in Bedfordshire who feel they would benefit from either of these services should contact their GP who will make a referral on their behalf if appropriate.

For more information about the Stroke Association, visit www.stroke.org.uk or call the Stroke Helpline on 0303 303 3100.

Volunteers needed to join the carnival team

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

WITH less than eight weeks until Luton International Carnival, the UK Centre for Carnival Arts (UKCCA) is recruiting helpers to assist in the smooth running of the spectacular event.

The carnival, which is taking place on Sunday, May 26, is one of Europe's biggest one day spectacles, where the town unites amidst a dazzling array of artistic achievement and audience participation.

Volunteers will not only gain valuable skills in helping run a large scale event but they'll also have the opportunity of meeting lots of people whilst supporting their community.

All those that take part will receive a full induction and support from a volunteer coordinator, food and travel expenses, a UK Centre for Carnival Arts branded t-shirt and a letter of reference.

Anyone interested in volunteering at Luton International Carnival should contact Natalie Pewsey on 01582 437117 or email natalie@carnivalarts.org.uk.

The deadline for all volunteer applications is Tuesday, April 30, at 5pm.

Four people threatened by men with 'guns'

FOUR people outside a house were threatened by two men who appeared to have guns.

The group, a woman aged 43, and three men aged 18, 21, and 22, were congregating at 8.30pm outside a house on Elgar Path when a blue people carrier, possibly a Vauxhall Zafira, with a yellow taxi light on top, pulled up and parked.

Two men got out of the vehicle and pulled out what appeared to be two hand guns from their clothing before pointing them at the group.

The woman and the 22-year-old were both threatened with the firearms before the remaining two victims ran from the scene down Elgar

Path followed by the offenders.

Bedfordshire Police are investigating and want to speak with anyone who may hold information about the car or the people involved in this incident.

Look at the tracks of lost railway lines

THE first railway line came to the county more than 150 years ago when, on November 17, 1846 the line for Bedford to Bletchley opened.

Despite several closure threats this line still operates today but the rest of the other branch lines that criss-crossed Bedfordshire have disappeared.

The railways had a profound effect on a primarily rural county that had previously know nothing faster than a galloping horse.

Within a week of the Bedford to Bletchley line opening the Bedford Stagecoach stopped running. A new era of transport had arrived.

Bedfordshire's railway network was completed between 1846 and 1872, the London and Birmingham line served Leighton Buzzard from 1838 but this was then outside the county boundary in the parish of Linslade.

As the 19th century progressed passenger trains became faster and more comfortable and goods trains carried all kinds of market garden produce, limestone,

THE Beeching report which led to rail cuts is 50 years old and with hindsight seems to be one of the worst political decisions of the last century. There is constant agitation for some of these lines to be rebuilt. STEVE LOWE looks back at the old railways that once criss-crossed the county sand and even hats and cars from Bedfordshire to all over the country. Captain William Peel, the son of Sir Robert Peel, built the shortest line in the county, the Sandy & Pottton Railway, which opened in 1857.

As he owned a large estate between the two he saw the benefits of a line of his own that would connect with the Great Northern Railway at Sandy.

There were only the two stations but the driver was known to stop anywhere if passengers flagged the engine down. After five years it merged with the Bedford & Cambridge Railway, which closed in 1967.

This ran the line from Oxford to Cambridge, that ran through Bedford. Its main purpose was to link the two college cities and enable the Dons from each to visit their counterparts.

Some of this line is to be rebuilt, as part of the East-West rail line.

The London and North Western Railway (LNWR) opened a branch line between Leighton Buzzard and Dunstable in 1848.

There was only one station in between at Stanbridgeford where companies such as the Dunstable Lime Co. used the line for freight traffic.

The Great Northern Railway (GNR) opened a link between Luton Bute Street and the

MEMORY LANE: Luton Bute Street Station

LNWR Dunstable station in 1858. The Leighton Buzzard to Dunstable section closed in 1962 with the remainder closing in 1965.

In 1857 the Midland Railway built what was originally its main line from Bedford to London via Hitchin.

It lost much of its importance when the Midland Railway built another line to London St Pancras, so bypassing the so-called Hitchin bottleneck where the rival GNR gave precedence to its own trains into Kings Cross. Passenger traffic ceased in 1962 but the line featured in the film Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines before the track was lifted in 1964.

The final branch line in the county opened in 1872 between Bedford and Northampton.

It branched off from the main line at Oakley junction and ran to Northampton via Turvey station, situated about a mile from the village.

The line closed in 1962, although there is still a campaign to reopen it.

The decline of the railways caused by the loss of markets and the increased competition from road transport led to the axe, following Dr Beeching's report in 1963 of the county's branch lines, a loss still mourned by many today.

It now looks increasingly short-sighted, as roads are clogged up with carbon emitting motor vehicles.

NATIONAL PET MONTH

CAN YOU HELP US RE-HOME SOME OF THESE LOVELY ANIMALS?

This is Hurricane. He is a three year old Lurcher who is fully vaccinated, neutered and micro-chipped. He is wonderful with people and mixes very well with other dogs but he is not cat safe. He is house-trained and can be let off the lead once he is properly settled. Hurricane can be left for a couple of hours, provided there are no bins or other things to raid in the room! This is Veronica Smethley. She is a Jack Russell Terrier and is 7 - 10 years old. She is very sweet and cuddly but doesn't like to be pushed around, so we are looking for a quiet home for her, ideally with a retired person or couple.

Veronica has a clean bill of health, so please don't be put off by her age.

NEW BIGGER, IMPROVED STORE NOW OPEN!

Lola is four years old and in May will be having her third anniversary of living here. Lola is deaf, but she has learned sign language and her trainer will give all the help a new family could possibly want. Lola is very good with people and mixes well with other dogs but is definitely not cat safe. We are looking for a home with an existing dog because Lola struggle to settle in new places if she doesn't have a dog to take confidence from. It will be a big step for her to leave us but we feel that she really deserves the comforts and fun of proper family life. Call 01525 220383

Pepper is a 1 year old boy, he was 1 of 9 kittens we had in last year, unfortunately they all contracted a flu virus and took several months to recover, they're all well now but are timid of people they haven't met as we were unable to socialise them until they recovered from the virus. We urgently need understanding homes for these cats and their siblings, although timid they're not at all spiteful. Contact phone numbers: Sue on 01582 650167 or Cheryl on 01582 881436

Latest G.I Joe film delivers an action-packed punch

FILM

G.I. JOE: RETALIATION

Running Time: 1hr 45mins

Director: Jon M Chu

IT MAY have been scandalously positioned in the market for maximum effect – but are worse ways to spend a of couple hours at your local cinema.

A) Draft in one of Hollywood's most bankable rising stars in Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson. Check.

B) Delay it by nine months to convert to 3D, thus maximising profitability. Check.

C) Keep some familiar faces (Channing Tatum, Snake Eyes etc) seemingly unscathed by the original, then reboot (kind of) the franchise. Check.

D) Stick in Bruce Willis for ten minutes to add a touch (even though slightly waning) of respectability. Check.

The film itself is fortunately a marked improvement over 2009's tepid – yet profitable – original, with some great action set-pieces that make it a watchable, if predictable, action romp, based on Hasbro's famous American action figures.

Master of disguise Zartan has infiltrated the US government by portraying himself as the President (Jonathan Pryce), and taken on the mantle of Cobra's interim leader in the process.

Under the guise of the world's most powerful man, he then attacks the covert army squad, known as the 'Joes', by setting them up – and leaving them for dead.

But the remaining members of the team must then quickly regroup to take out Zartan before he wipes out the world's nuclear threat – leaving Cobra controlling the remaining atomic weapons and the entire planet.

And despite a generic script and stale dialogue, it's some terrific set-pieces that helps eradicate the film's flaws, as Retaliation does exactly what it says on the proverbial tin – nothing less, nothing more.

Review by Gavin Miller
Rating: 3/5

RAILWAY

Highfield Oval, Harpenden
Saturday, 2pm-5.30pm

THE Brambleton Model Railway Club (BMRC) will be hosting an open day next Saturday.

It will be hosted at an outdoor club which has an O gauge layout consisting of nine stations on a loop of double track.

This line will be in operation all afternoon. In addition there will be live steam engines running on 16mm garden line which now extends to almost 200 yards.

The O gauge lines are made up of a double track circuit with spurs to a terminus.

In all, there are nine stations with approximately a quarter of a mile of track.

More recently the club has constructed an SM32 line which allows operation of 16mm narrow gauge trains.

The attraction of live steam has meant that these open days have become very popular in recent years, for model railway enthusiasts of all ages.

The Brambleton Model Railway Club began its life as an unofficial boys club in 1947 before forming as the railway club on January 1, 1956. Its aim was to provide a youth-based club for young people interested in model railways.

Tickets cost £1 for children and senior citizens and £2 for adults.

Refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon.

THEATRE

Kindly Leave The Stage
The Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Saturday, April 20, 7.30pm

FOLLOWING its most recent No.1 UK tour of Great Expectations and the critically-acclaimed regional tour of Veronica's Room, Baroque Theatre Company is proud to present the rip-roaring comedy 'Kindly Leave The Stage'.

The company launched in 2010 with a highly successful regional tour of the show.

And having received such positive feedback from audience members and reviewers alike, Baroque has decided to tour with this side-splitting favourite again, but on a much larger scale.

In a similar vein to Noises Off, this light, frothy and highly entertaining 'play within a play' shows the petty off-stage jealousies and entanglements between the actors within a repertory theatre company, not to mention their artistic differences.

Tickets for the production cost £15 and you can book by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Alternatively you can visit the Grove online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk for online bookings and more information.

Jazz quartet swing away

THE Steve Melling trio will be joined by the superb Nigel Hitchcock tonight at 8pm at the Herts Jazz Club.

Melling is a formidable pianist, performing with heavyweights like Elvin Jones, Peter King, Alan Skidmore, Phil Woods and Benny Golson.

He recently became a member of the European Jazz Ensemble, which has featured many outstanding musicians from all over Europe since its inception in 1976.

Melling will be joined by Andrew Cleynert on the double bass and Miles Levin on drums.

Nigel Hitchcock will be on the alto saxophone. He is one of the world's premier saxophonists.

Cleynert is an accomplished double bassist and he has been nominated for the British Jazz Awards every year since they started 27 years ago.

He also has his own record label Trio Records and has released 22 albums through that.

Levin is the son of the influential jazz drummer Tony Levin and has recorded and played with a variety of artists.

Tickets start from £5 and you can book by calling the box office on 01707 357117.

Helping someone get their life back after an accident or serious illness could be one of the most rewarding things you'll ever do. Providing one-to-one short-term care to adults of a range of ages, you'll enable them to regain their confidence and their ability to perform every day tasks. And, as you report back on their progress, you'll inform service decisions on whether they're able to stay in their own home. It could change your life too, as you gain valuable experience for your future in a caring career. Ideally, you'll already have a relevant qualification (NVQ3 in care or similar), but it's not essential as we'll give you all the training and support you need. It is essential that you have your own car.

To apply, please telephone Jodie Gipp on 01223 315531 between 9.00am - 5.00pm (Monday - Friday) for an initial telephone interview.

Closing date: 21 April 2013.

LARGING IT

The Fiat 500L isn't going to command the column inches of its city car forebear but it might just be a more relevant vehicle for many more potential customers.

It also offers something a little different from the usual boring supermini-MPV norm with an interior that retains a certain sense of occasion.

The exterior lines are largely dictated by the car's role, and while Fiat has done its best to integrate 500 design cues into them, not everyone will like the end result.

That's a relatively minor grouse though. The interior probably works a good deal better than the exterior treatment. The huge glass area gives the cabin a light, airy feel and the fascia looks classy with a touch screen infotainment system, big dials and chunky controls.

It's reasonably practical too, the key benefit being the sliding rear seats. Whizz them forward and there's still a reasonable amount of leg room and three can sit on the rear bench in acceptable comfort as long as they're not of linebacker dimensions. The 414-litre square boot features side cubbies, a three-position floor and pop-out bag holders. The rear seats can tumble forwards while if you need to take really long loads, you'll find the front passenger seat back can also fold flat. Fiat claims there are no fewer than 22 different storage spaces dotted about the car.

The rest of the 500L package measures up, with the diesel engine looking the pick of the bunch if you want a bit of poke and to keep a cap on day to day running costs. The 500L might be unoriginal, it's certainly not pretty and it might even be accused of being opportunist, but out of these unpromising ingredients has emerged a surprisingly credible car.

FRUITLESS AFTERNOON: Hatters keeper Dean Brill picked the ball out of his own net five times

IT SEEMS an obvious observation in hindsight but John Still could probably not have picked a better Hatters game to miss.

A scouting mission prevented the Town boss from overseeing this dismal display, and on the face of it, not even the summer acquisition of Lionel Messi could resurrect stumbling Luton.

Dan Walker's 36th minute effort was scant consolation in a highly inept showing as a brace apiece from top scorer Josh Gillies and Ryan Donaldson and an injury-time strike from former Luton loanee Liam Hatch ensured Town's worst defeat of, what is turning into, a poor season.

Due to pitch issues at the Gateshead International Stadium, the nomadic Heads have been forced to seek refuge at several grounds in northern England since New Year's Day and the north-east club were forced into a 60-mile dash to Carlisle United simply to "host" this affair.

In the wake of Still's absence, the responsibility of trying to coax only Town's second win in nine games was left in the hands of assistant Terry Harris.

"The damage was done in the first half," said Harris, after a game which attracted a paltry crowd of just 382.

"We got passed around, passed through, passed over and that shows we were not really a unit today."

With Luton looking to bounce back from Easter Monday's defeat against title-chasing Kidderminster Harriers, the stand-in supremo saw fit to shuffle the deck once more.

Mark Tyler, Jake Howells, Scott Rendell, former Heads striker Jon Shaw and Matt Robinson all received the chop as Dean Brill, top scorer Andre Gray, Alex Wall, Dan Walker and Jonathan Smith stepped in to arrest Luton from their poor recent run of just one solitary win in their previous eight games.

Gateshead's only victory over Town in nine meetings came back in September 2010 but it was clear from the outset of this one that their luck would change.

Aside from an early flurry of away corners that amounted to very little, the "home" side were camped in Luton's half for much of the opening exchanges and got their reward for their persistence in the 13th minute.

Donaldson was invited into the box by nervy Town defending and he coolly slotted past the powerless Brill.

The pace and energy of the Gateshead attack was proving too much for the Hatters and just

Luton Diss opponents to home in on third

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT

bartlett@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON Rugby built on last week's 42-12 demolition of Rochford Hundred with the comprehensive destruction of Diss yesterday afternoon, winning 36-14.

Diss had beaten Luton 12-5 in the reverse fixture last November, but there was to be no repeat of that scoreline as Luton looked every inch the better team.

Luton's domination, either side of half time, helped them score three tries and kill the game off.

"Rik Hobbs controlled beautifully," said Luton captain

Steve Ellis. "The lads really dug in, it was a fantastic team performance."

Luton started the day fourth, and with results going their way, may achieve their target of third with two games to play, though the first is a trip to unbeaten league leaders Bury St Edmonds next Saturday.

Luton led 17-6 at the interval thanks to three penalties and a drop goal from Hobbs, and a 40th minute Tesh Edwards try, finishing much the stronger of the two teams.

The second period saw Luton score a further three tries, from Tom Wilmore, Michael Weston and Ellis, with two conversions added by Hobbs to complete a 19-8 second half Luton win.

Stockwood Park travelled to Deepings yesterday, emerging 34-29 winners, while not playing the best rugby they've played this season.

"We couldn't hold on to the ball", said injured captain Ben Griffin, who was forced to watch from the side. "We made it difficult for ourselves, but we got the bonus point, and the win, away from home."

Also missing from a Stockwood Park side that has been so dominant in recent weeks was 'super-prop' Casey Waterfield, and number eight Eric Butler, as the Lutonian side trailed 12-0 in the opening stages.

James Hankey, Henry Lovell and Darren May scored tries for Stockwood, as they trailed 22-17 at half-time. Second half scores from Alex Lovell and Jamie Newell tied things at 29-29 before Lovell 'fell over' the line on the end of a spectacular 50-yard solo run for the winner.

Nomad Grif is keen for a long stay

BY DAN PALMER
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

NEW Hatters recruit Scott Griffiths is hoping for an extended stay at Kenilworth Road after growing tired of being a 'loan ranger'.

The defender was snapped up by Luton manager John Still last month when he was released by Championship outfit Peterborough United in January.

It was a place where he found first team opportunities illusive.

Posh sent Griffiths out on loan no fewer than five times and the nomadic lifestyle was not ideal for the 27-year-old.

He went to Chesterfield twice and also played for Crawley, Rotherham United and Plymouth Argyle while still contracted to the London Road club.

But his arrival at Luton means he can now aim for a run of games for the team he is contracted too.

"Last season and this season I've had quite a few loans and for whatever reasons that hasn't worked out," Griffiths told the club's website.

"Managers can get sacked, players can get back fit or there can be a change of personnel.

"It would be nice to stay at one place for more than a month.

"I've been reassured that Luton are definitely looking to go up and progress.

"That's what I want to be a part of.

"I want to be at a team which is looking to go somewhere and wanting to get back into the league as soon as possible."

Griffiths' move to Luton has seen him reunited with Still, who he played under more than 200 times while at Dagenham & Redbridge.

Knowing the man in charge has helped Griffiths settle into life in his new surroundings.

"I was with John for nearly six years," the full-back said.

"I've played under him enough times to know what he's about.

"It's almost like being back at Dagenham in a way as some of the stuff that is said and the way he wants some stuff done.

"I already know what's going on. It's easier to settle in."

Griffiths admitted that he wasn't at his best when he made his debut for the club in the 2-1 defeat to Kidderminster Harriers on Easter Monday.

He was introduced into the action earlier than Still would have wanted due to an injury to Steve McNulty in the 39th minute of the contest against the Blue Square Premier leaders.

"I wasn't as sharp as I could have been," he said.

"It's the first proper game I'd played since October so I'm glad we lasted as long as we did.

"As soon as I'm match fit I'm looking forward to giving other teams a run for their money.

"I'm enjoying it here, I'm learning the area.

"The lads seem friendly enough and everyone's making me feel welcome.

"John Still and Terry Harris can get me back to my peak."

SOLE REWARD: Dan Walker grabbed the only goal for Luton after the long journey to Carlisle.

Pictures: Gareth Owen

thrashed in Carlisle

moments after Donaldson's opener, Anthony Smith's side doubled their deserving lead with almost a carbon copy of the first.

Gillies slipped between the flailing Luton backline and rifled home his 13th goal of the season. No-one could have begrudged any of the 126 travelling Hatters from moving swiftly towards the exits at this point.

Luton's calamitous start was personified in the 27th minute as Walker and Simon Ainge collided, much to the amusement of the Gateshead faithful, but they soon gathered a lifeline through next to nothing.

Dave Martin found Walker and he slammed home to half the deficit nine minutes before the break.

A 2-1 half-time scoreline would have slightly masked an average Luton showing but gave them hope for the second half.

However, it was not to be as Jonathan Smith bundled over James Brown in the box in first-half stoppage time with Gillies completing the formalities from the spot to re-establish Town's two-goal disadvantage and give Harris a bigger half-time headache.

Things perhaps could have been different had Wall not squandered two gild-edged opportunities soon after the break. A glaring three-yard miss after being supplied by Gray in the 50th minute certainly did not add weight to his claim for a full-time striking berth at Kenilworth Road next season.

Moments later, the Heads had Carl Magnay to thank for maintaining their two-goal cushion as he cleared off the line after Martin had rounded keeper Adam Bartlett and struck low.

Town's brief resolve was soon extinguished as Donaldson's 65th minute strike, smashing between the legs of Brill from close range, put the game beyond doubt.

With the prospect of a 270-mile journey back to Bedfordshire at the forefront of travelling Hatters' minds, their misery was compounded in added-time as Hatch lashed in number five. Not a five-star performance by Gateshead by any stretch but a handsome result that will give Still and Harris plenty to ponder.

The assistant boss said the size of the task had not been underestimated.

"We knew what we were taking on from day one," he said. "At this moment we are going to have bad days, which we have had today, but hopefully we do not have too many of them.

"In future seasons though I hope we can build a side that fans of Luton Town can be proud of."

Gateshead – Bartlett; Magney, Boyle, Curtis, Gillies (Fowler, 89), Turnbull, Cummins, Donaldson (Everson, 86), Bore, Hatch, Brown. Subs not used – Nixon, Galpin, Marwood.

Luton – Brill; Ainge, McNulty, Goodman, Rowe-Turner; Walker, Smith, Taiwo (Robinson, 45), Martin; Gray, Wall (Rendell, 86). Subs not used – McFarlane-Barnes, Griffiths, Shaw.

Dunstable's title run-in looks Taylor made

LOCAL FOOTBALL

BY JONATHAN PAXTON
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE Town grabbed a hard fought 2-1 win at Hanwell Town and could wrap up the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division title in midweek.

They were made to fight for a result against an in-form home side which had the better chances of the first half, Bill Healey unluckily seeing his shot rebound off both posts and out.

Hanwell had the chance to take the lead on 58 minutes when the referee awarded a penalty but Paul Taylor made a fantastic save from Michael Buckley's spot kick.

It proved to be the turning point as on 66 minutes Lee Roache headed home a Newman Carney corner and, two minutes later, BJ Christie's header was saved, but the rebound struck defender Enson who could only turn the ball into his own net to put Dunstable 2-0 ahead.

A Terry Smith penalty got Hanwell back into the game but the 2-1 win, along with Oxhey Jets' 3-0 defeat, means Dunstable can secure the title at Creasey Park with a win against Haringey Borough on Tuesday.

Barton Rovers picked up a point in a goalless draw with AFC Hayes in the Evo Stick Division One Central Division.

Sam James forced the keeper into a pair of saves in the first half while Rhys Hoeness saw a free kick saved in the second half.

Hayes, though, had the best chance of the match deep into injury time when Kachan Jordan broke free but put his shot high over the bar.

Dan Kennoy's side are unbeaten in four games after an impressive Easter period, leaving his side in 13th place.

Kent Athletic top the Spartan South Midlands Division Two after a 6-0 away victory against Aylesbury Reserves.

This was Kent's fifth win in a row and they sit two points clear of second-placed Aston Clinton.

Still to miss matches as Town's rebuild continues

FOOTBALL

BY DAN PALMER
sport@lntmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town were hammered 5-1 by Gateshead yesterday – but manager John Still wasn't there to see it.

The Hatters boss has made no secret that his task of resurrecting the Hatters' Football League ambition will be a long term project.

And with promotion dreams over for this season he feels his time can be better spent scouting potential new recruits instead of watching his side in action.

Missing first-team fixtures is a highly unusual step for a manager, but Still said he is likely to be absent for more games as the current Blue Square Premier campaign meanders to a close.

Assistant Terry Harris took the reins against Gateshead instead and Still suggested the pair would split responsibilities for managing the team and scouting.

"I need to look at one or two players, as does Terry, but not together," said Still.

"We will probably not do the same games together between now and the end of the season.

"We now have to make some decisions on players."

Still has already shown the exit to Alisan Ann, Scott Neilson, James Dance, Stuart Fleetwood and Janos Kovacs while Arnaud Mendy has been placed on the transfer list.

"One or two" further changes are now expected in the next week to ten days.

"I was aware when I came here that perhaps the team wasn't doing as well as people would have liked at the start of the season," said Still.

"I think that's a fair assessment. Quick fixes don't work. They work for a little while, but as quick as they can come, as quick they can go.

"We hope it's sooner rather than later but it's very difficult to put a timescale on it."
